QUIET PREVAILS ON MEXICAN BORDER NEAR BROWNSVILLE

ONLY TWO BANDS OF RAIDERS NOW BELIEVED IN EXISTENCE IN THAT SECTION OF BORDER TERRITORY.

BANDS ARE EXTERMINATED

Many Have Been Killed, Others Captured and Most of Remainder Scattered And Driven Across Rio Grande De La Rosa Still at Large.

By Associated Press.

Brownsville, Texas, November 13.—With two weeks of quiet on the Texas border, the belief prevails that the outlaw bands who have wrought havoc at various times since last July, causing deaths among American soldiers and citizens, and destruction of property, have been broken up. A resident of Brownsville who has been investigating the various outbreaks, and who possesses a better knowledge than the ordinary citizen as to the number and rendezvous of the bandits, said tonight he believed that there were only two combined bands of maruders in existence. One of these, containing five men, was hidden in the brush eleven miles from here, and the second, eight in number, in the north end of the country 45 miles from here. He expressed the opinion that no further trouble might be expected unless the bands succeed in uniting. This is not considered probable, as the vigil of the border patrol is such that those who were believed to have taken part in former raids have either been captured or are afraid to come into the open.

Confession Reported.

Of the band that wrecked a south bound St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexican train on October 19, which was estimated to have about 25 members, nine have been killed and four arrested charged with complicity. One of these men, Chano Flores, is reported to have confessed his connection with the band, furnishing the names of others to Sheriff W. T. Vann.

Two Mexicans were turned over to county authorities today after being arrested Friday by Texas rangers and United States soldiers. One of these was arrested by a ranger eleven miles from here and is reported to have admitted to officers that he was a member of the bandit band. He is said to have claimed to have been captured by them and forced to serve, that he escaped and was later arrested. The second arrest was made by cavalrymen on the banks of the Rio Grande when they apprehended a Mexican who said he lived in the republic, but who could not give a satisfactory explanation of his presence on the American side.

De La Rosa's House Guarded.

Luis de la Rosa, alleged leader of the bandits, on whose head there is a reward of $1,000 by the State of Texas, was again mentioned in border gossip today as frequenting Matamoras, the Mexican town opposite here although not as openly as formerly. Carranza authorities in Matamoras claim to be making efforts to arrest him. The house where de la Rosa's family lives is said to be guarded nightly, soldiers sleeping on the doorstep in an effort to arrest him when he returns home. Mexican residents in the neighborhood have reported seeing the soldier guard.

The body of Private Michael Moleski, a teamster in the quartermaster corps at Fort Brown who was accidentally killed Thursday, was shipped to his home in Mt. Carmel, Pennsylvania, today.

"The French have occupied several villages on the right bank of the Vardar river. A junction of the French and Serbian troops before Babuna Pass rumored for the last few days has not been effected."

Italian Viewpoint on Sinking of Ancona Presented to the American Ambassador.

By Associated Press.

Rome, November 13.—A lengthy conference today between Foreign Minister Sonnio and Thomas Nelson Page, the American ambassador, is believed to have brought about a full exchange of views concerning the Ancona. The nature of the conversation has not been revealed, but there is reason to believe that the Italian viewpoint was fully presented, reflecting the strong feeling that the sinking of the liner was such a flagrant breach of international law that neutral governments should adopt an energetic course to secure complete reparation.

Ambassador Page was advised of the sinking of the Firenze today, even before the official announcement was made public. This additional incident has increased official and puclic indignation to an intense degree.

BELL COUNTY GOES DRY BY A MAJORITY OF 473

PROS THEMSELVES ARE SURPRISED AT MAJORITY

Campaign Attracted Statewide Interest Because of Governor's Charge Move to Discredit Him.

Special to The Times.

Temple, Tex., Nov. 13.—If the prohibition movement in Bell county was an attempt to discredit Governor Ferguson, as the governor himself charged, Bell county today wrote the answer by voting dry by 473 majority. In spite of the prominent part which Governor Ferguson took in the campaign, especially in its closing days, the pros won by a majority that was surprising even to themselves, and which is more than likely to have a decided effect on Texas politics as a whole.

The total vote was 3384 to 2911. Two years ago the county returned a wet majority of 114. Today Temple went wet by 31 votes, only two more than Belton. In the election of August, 1913 these places returned anti majorities that overcame the dry vote from the smaller voting precincts.

Interest in the result today was statewide by reason of this being the governor's home county and this interest was made more acute when the chief executive several days ago, expressing his belief that the pro campaign was an attack upon him, shied his hat into the ring and came home to take an active, if ineffective, part in the fight. It is believed that the outcome today will have an effect upon Ferguson's race for re-election next year.

At ten o'clock tonight one box, casting about 50 votes was still out; it will not be heard from until tomorrow.

The campaign, which lasted for four weeks, was one of the hottest fights ever waged in the state. "Cyclone" Davis and Rev. Mr. Ham, the revivalist, took a leading part for the pros.

C. C. McDonald, assistant attorney general and Governor Ferguson were the heavy artillery for the antis.

M. Ribot declares the loan marked the determination of France to continue the war until victory is achieved.

FIANCE ONLY EXISTS IN WOMAN'S IMAGINATION

Only When She Brought Home Body Was it Discovered That Dr. Hensley Was Myth.

By Associated Press.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 13.—"Dr. Alleyne Hensley," announced in formal wedding invitations and in society columns of local newspapers as the fiance of Miss Julia Choate Crumsley, a music teacher of this city, existed only in her imagination it became definitely known today. Not until Miss Crumsley had gone to Chicago and "identified the body of an unknown man killed in a railroad accident as that of her Dr. Hensley" did her family and friends suspect anything unusual. She is being attended by nerve specialists today at the home of her father, the Rev. Howard Lee Crumsley, a well known Methodist minister. The funeral has been set for Thursday in the undertaker's parlor. An announcement in newspapers yesterday stated it had been postponed.

Two years ago Miss Crumsley was in Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore undergoing an operation. On her return she told family and friends that a Doctor Alleyne Hensley had performed these operations and that they had fallen in love with each other. Letters were received from "Dr. Hensley" who, she said, was in Quebec, Canada. Two weeks ago invitations to the wedding on November 17 were issued and public notices went so far as to give the details of the forthcoming wedding. Miss Crumsley left Atlanta about the time of the announcement, stating that she was going to New York to purchase her trousseau. Last week relatives received a message that she had received a telegram to the effect that Dr. Hensley had been injured in a train wreck. Another message from Chicago said he had died before she arrived and that she was bringing the body here.

MONEY AND TIME TO SAVE ROCK ISLAND

FIVE YEARS AND EXPENDITURE OF 27 MILLION TO MAK E ROAD PROSPEROUS

REPORT OF COMMISSIONER

Operating Expenses Can Be Reduced Over Five Million Dollars in First Year's Operating

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Five years time and an expenditure of approximately $27,000,000 is required for the thorough rehabilitation of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway Company, now in the hands of a receiver, according to the special report of J. W. Kendrick made public here today. The report is bulky; a synopsis prepared by Mr. Kendrick says:

"The full amount of the savings or economies suggested will not be realized until the last year, 1921."

The synopsis mentions "$6,008,000 for grade revision, new lines, sidings and second tracks; $3,442,000 for improvements to existing cars and locomotives; $3,587,000 for ballast and bank widening; $3,000,000 for tie plates and $3,292,000 for track elevation and grade separations, as among the more important items. Continuing the synopsis says:

"It is believed that this amount of money judiciously expended will result in putting the Rock Island in good physical condition and by the exercise of close supervision it is estimated that the net annual saving in operating expenses for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915 will amount to $5,050,000.

"By the cancellation and modification of certain leases there should be a reduction in rentals amounting to $319,000 annually. The expenditures will cause an increase in interest on funded and unfunded debts in 1919 over 1915 of $1,588,000."

FRENCH OUTSPOKEN IN DISTRUST OF GREECE

By Associated Press.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The papers of Paris today are more outspoken than they have been in the past in their distrust of Greece. Although the recent dissolution of the Greek parliament was expected French observers today are declaring that the fact that King Constantine tore up the Greek constitution rather than join the allies cannot be explained.

The Matin insists that no economic or financial aid be given the Skouloudis government until more ample knowledge of the actual situation can be obtained.

Gabriel Hanotaux in the Figaro says Denys Cochin, a member of the French cabinet without portfolio, has gone to Greece to endeavor to get the real truth of the situation. It is probable that M. Cochin will meet Earl Kitchener at Athens and the joint representations of these two men, says M. Hanotaux, should have great weight.

STORY OF SHELLING OF STEAMER ANCONA

VESSEL FIRED UPON WITHOUT ANY WARNING WHATEVER, DISPATCH SAYS.

LIFE BOATS WERE FIRED ON

Fifty Shots Fired Into Steamer Until She Stopped—Passengers Given Half Hour to Leave Ship.

By Associated Press.

Paris, Nov. 13.—A connected story of the shelling and torpedoing of the Italian liner, Ancona, was received by the Havas News Agency today from Ferryville, where it was filed November 11. It follows:

"The Ancona left Messina at 8 a. m., November 6. About 10:30 o'clock on the morning of November 7 she picked up a wireless distress signal from the steamship France, reading 'S. O. S., we are being shelled.' The message ended abruptly without the position of the France being given so that it was impossible for the Ancona to go to her aid. The Ancona continued on her route an hour afterwards, the sea being calm and the weather misty.

"Without any sort of warning, reports of a gun were heard and shells struck the Ancona forward, causing considerable damage. The wireless operator instantly sent out a distress signal with the name of the ship and her position.

"The submarine approached nearer the Ancona, keeping up a continuous fire. First the wireless apparatus was demolished and then the life boats were shot to pieces, a number of passengers being killed or wounded.

"Fifty shots at least were fired until the Ancona stopped.

"The submarine then hoisted the Austrian colors and her commander announced that he would allow ten minutes for all to quit the ship. The undamaged boats at once were lowered and after the wounded had been placed in them the passengers and crew followed. This was going on for half an hour when the submarine fired a torpedo, which struck the Ancona on the bow. The ship sank gradually and disappeared at 2:30 p. m. The submarine then sailed away.

"Toward 6 o'clock in the evening the mine layer, Pluton, which had picked up the Ancona's distress message, arrived on the scene. Most of the survivors thus were rescued close to the place where the steamer sank."

REPORTED SUBMARINE CHASED LIFE BOATS

By Associated Press.

Naples, Nov. 13.—Survivors of the Ancona testified, according to telegrams received here today from Tunis, that a submarine during the night chased the boats containing the passengers and capsized some of them.

ALL EFFORTS TO SECURE INFORMATION HAVE FAILED

By Associated Press.

Washington, November 13.—All efforts of the United States government to learn the circumstances under which the Italian liner, Ancona, was sunk, with a loss, it is believed, of several American lives, thus far have been without result. In the absence of information whether the submarine was German or Austrian officials realize they are unable to take any further steps.

Officials believe that the inaccessibility of those who were rescued and the conflicting and incoherent statements made by them, have caused Italian authorities to make a thorough investigation before furnishing Ambassador Page with a report.

GORICAR'S CHARGES STRONGLY DENIED

AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN CHARGE SUBMITS DATA TO STATE DEPARTMENT RELATIVE TO GORICA.

GORICAR WANTED MONEY

Offered to Discontinue Utterances For Money Consideration—Charge Being Investigated.

Washington, November 13.—Baron Erich Zwiedinek, charge of the Austro-Hungarian embassy, called at the state department today and denied the published charges of Dr. Goricar, formerly of the Austrian consular service, that Austrian consulates in the United States were "hot-beds of propaganda" for fomenting strikes in munitions plants.

The charge submitted data regarding Dr. Goricar and implied steps would be taken against the former consul. He was told that the department of justice already was investigating.

After the charges conference with Acting Secretary Phillips at the state department, the Austro-Hungarian embassy gave out a statement declaring that Dr. Goricar offered to discontinue his utterances against Austria-Hungary should he be allowed a monthly sum of money. It characterized Dr. Goricar as "one of the happily very limited number of Austro-Hungarian officials, who, impressed with the overwhelming combination of power forming a threatening circle around the Central Powers, thought it best at the outbreak of war to leave what they thought a sinking ship and offer their services to the other side."

"These services must not have been very valuable until now" the statement continues "is shown by the almost destitute condition in which Goricar was reported to have been at different places in the United States. Lately in New York he offered one of the officials, a consul general, to give up all activity against Austria Hungary if he was to receive an allowance of $20 to $30 monthly. This offer naturally was categorically refused."

General Villa and his entire force of about 2,000 left Nogales, Mexico, opposite here today for Magdalena where he will confer with General Urbalejo, commander of the Yaqui contingent of the Villa army.

Before leaving Villa made a short speech in the plaza to a large crowd and his secretary read a long address outlining the principles of the Villa cause and declaring it was far from dead. It was reported here today that the Villa garrison at Naco left for the south, their destination presumably being Hermosillo.

I think he was killed as he disappeared suddenly."

FRENCH AND GERMAN PEACE ADVOCATES AT HAGUE

London Paper Points Out "Curious Coincidence" in Recent Visits to The Hague.

By Associated Press.

London, November 13.—The Times this morning calls attention to a "curious coincidence" which took place recently at The Hague. A visit of Josef Caillaux, former premier of France, and Baron D'Estournelles De Constant, the French peace advocate, to The Hague, has aroused great interest in the diplomatic world, the paper says, because a certain member of the German Reichstag was at The Hague at the same time gives this an added signifigance, the paper concludes.

VILLA'S YAQUIS ARE REPORTED DEFEATED

ATTACKED BY SUPERIOR FORCE OF CARRANZA SOLDIERS AND ROUTED AT HERMOSILLO

VILLA FORCES MOVE SOUTH

Yaquis Reported Retreating in Disorder—Reinforcements on Way to Carranza General.

By Associated Press.

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 13.—General T. Elias Calles tonight announced the receipt of an official dispatch stating that General Francisco Urbalejo commanding Villa's Yaqui Indians was defeated Thursday by General Diguese at Curbo, 30 miles north of Hermosillo.

General Calles stated that the dispatch says the Yaquis were retreating northward in disorder and that an engine was used by Villa to bring the artillery section north. According to Calles, Urbalejo has about 2,000 men, while Dieguese, he said, had 8,000, with 6000 reinforcement en route from Guaymas. Withdrawal of all the Villa forces southward was reported to General Calles tonight. Colonel Larazo Carbenes, with 1000 men was reported attacking the rear guard.

A skirmish yesterday between small forces of Carranza and Villa troops resulted in the withdrawal of Villa troops to Moctuzama and the occupation of Cumpas by the Carranza troops, according to Calles, who placed the Villa casualties at six killed and one wounded, the Carranza loss being unestimated.

The ship is owned by the American Trans-Atlantic Company of New York.

ALLIES UNEASY OVER ATTITUDE OF GREEK GOVERNMENT

FRENCH AND ENGLISH BEGINNING TO QUESTION EVEN AVOWED BENEVOLENT NEUTRALITY OF GREECE.

THE RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE

General Ruscky's Forces Beginning to Exert Strong Pressure Upon German In Dvinsk Section—French and Serbians Making Progress.

By Associated Press.

London, Nov. 13.—Although London refuses to share the skepticism which the dissolution of the Greek chamber has caused in France no attempt is made to disguise the seriousness of the situation nor the fact that King Constantine's action has put a definite quietus on all hopes of Greek's cooperation in the near future.

The Greek king's suspenison of the majority in the Chamber of which Monsieur Venizelos is the leader is not regarded here as a definite step toward fulfilling a secret compact with the Central Powers. On the other hand the southern situation makes it obvious that whatever kindly intention Greece entertains toward the entente powers must await the new elections, which are more than a month off, for fulfillment.

The report that Lord Kitchener, secretary of state of war, has been sent on a mission to King Constantine to whom he will offer new proposals, has received no confirmation, but the coincidence of his departure with the king's resolution to dissolve the chamber makes the supposition plausible. The report also gained interest from the announcement from several sources that an Austro-German mission had already arrived at Athens to formulate a definite understanding between Greece and the Central Powers. At the same time the Roumanian king is said to be receiving deputations from both belligerents, but the position of Greece and Roum nia, despite diplomatic pressure, is still modified.

Beyond the German announcement of the captures of the passes and the heights of Jastrebac, carrying slightly further southward the drive of the Austro-Germans there has been no recent achievement on either side in the Serbian campaign. French artillery patrols are reported to have surrounded Veles but the Bulgarians still hold the town.

Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's campaign in the Righ-Dvinsk region appears to have definitely ended as the counter movement of the Russian armies under General Ruzsky in gaining momentum.

FOOD STILL REPORTED SCARCE IN MEXICO CITY

Conditions Greatly Improved From a Military Standpoint—Carranza Force Active Near Torreon.

By Associated Press.

Laredo, Texas, Nov. 13.—Skirmishes between Carranza soldiers and roving bands of guerillas occurred yesterday near Tula, Tamaulipaz. The de facto forces are now centering in this portion of the republic. Reports circulated on the border that Villa had taken San Luis Potosi in the state of that name were without foundation.

Persons arriving at the international boundary topight say that while conditions in the interior of Mexico are improving, there is still a scarcity of food in Mexico City. From a military standpoint, however conditions have improved greatly.

Messages from the Torreon vicinity say that locality has the appearance of an armed camp, where measures for the extermination of Villa and his followers in Chihuahua are being put into action. What little news comes through from Chihuahua state indicates deplorable conditions as regard food sources. First Chief Carranza will spend Sunday at Saltillo.

HILBURN'S INDORSERS RETAIN INSURANCE MONEY

Federal Judge Finds in Favor of Wichita Falls Citizens in Bankruptcy Case

The Wichitans who indorsed the note of T. A. Hilburn, glove manufacturer for $10,000 will not have to repay the $7,000 which Mr. Hilburn paid them in settlement of the indebtedness. This is the effect of a decision by Judge Meek in federal court at Fort Worth Saturday in the case of H. O. Ledgerwood, trustee for T. A. Hilburn, vs. Frank Kell et al.

Mr. Hilburn paid the indorsers $7,000 out of accident insurance money which he received when he was wounded by a shotgun, the agreement being that the remaining $3,000 should be paid by the indorsers. Subsequently the glove factory which Mr. Hilburn established here went into bankruptcy and the trustee sought to force the refund of the amounts paid to the indorsers, the above suit being filed. Yesterday's decision permits the indorsers to retain the amounts received from Hilburn, it being announced that there would be no appeal.

The decision also affects the payment of $1,500 to J. W. Culbertson, who loaned that amount to Hilburn; the latter paid the note out of the accident insurance money and the trustee sought to have this money returned also. By the terms of the judgment, Mr. Culbertson will not have to repay the $1,500.

It is rumored several other locations will be made in the near future, some of which will probably be in the undeveloped territory.

PRINCETON LOSES TO YALE 13 TO 7

GUERNSEY'S FIELD GOAL KICKING PAVED THE WAY FOR YALE'S VICTORY.

LUCK BREAKS FOR THE BLUE

Ell Started Each Attack When Within Shadow of Her Own Goal Posts.

By Associated Press.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 13.—The Yale eleven won from Princeton here today, 13 to 7. No gridiron classic of recent years has furnished greater thrills than this triumph of the Blue over the Orange and Black. It was a case of a powerful football combination, just beginning to find itself, overwhelming by brute strength an eleven far more finished in playing tactics.

Gridiron heroes rose and fell during the struggle, but the field goal kicking of Otis L. Guernsey paved the way for a Yale victory. Twice in the second period, Guernsey drove the ball through the Tiger goal posts when Captain Wilson of the Yale team found that the eleven as a whole was unequal to the task of taking the spheroid across the opponents' line. Both drop kicks were made from near midfield and the performance of the Greenwich, Connecticutt player won him a place among the kicking stars of football.

Tonight Guernsey, Way, Captain Wilson and Emergency Coach Tom Shevlin are the heroes of both town and gown.

Close to 60,000 spectators saw the game. Yale's fighting spirit, aided by the breaks in the luck of the game, swung the pendulum of victory to the blue. The Ell's started each attack when, within the shadow of their own goal, and the final whistle found them with the ball safe in their possession in midfield. The unexpected victory was followed by one of the most remarkable scenes of rejoicing ever witnessed at any Yale athletic contest. The blanketed weary players were carried on the shoulders of the marching snake dancers entirely around the edge of the "bowl" before they were released by the enthusiastic students.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS WINS FROM ALABAMA

Texans Gained Through Alabama Line Both Teams Attempt Forward Passes With Poor Results.

By Associated Press.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 13.—Straight football won for Texas over Alabama on Clark field this afternoon, 20 to 0. With the exception of several long runs, Texas gained through the Alabama line, the visitors being unable to hold the Longhorns. Although often attempted by each side, but one forward pass succeeded. This was made in the third quarter and led to but a temporary gain.

Following repeated failures to work the forward pass, Texas abandoned it in the first quarter and shortly afterward marched down the field in a series of steady gains through the opposing line, for the first touchdown. The same thing was repeated in the second period. Texas' third touch down was gained by end runs, the most spectacular of which was made by Littlefield, who dodged seven men and ran 53 yards.

Unable to gain through the Texas line and foreseeing a shutout, Alabama resorted to kicking and in the fourth quarter, Vandergraff, the wonderful left tackle of the Alabama team three times tried for field goals from distances which would have been made the feats impossible to the average kicker. The most spectacular of these attempts was a trial for goal from Alamaba's 45-yard line. Had the ball not been wet, Vandergraff would probably have made the goal, despite the distance of 55 yards. The game was clean throughout, although Texas was several times penalized. Fullback Johnson of Alabama was injured and Waite of Texas suffered a sprained leg, but later went back into the game.

ELECTRA TEAM TO MEET LOCALS TODAY

WICHITANS WILL TRY TO REDEEM THEMSELVES FOR FORMER DEFEAT

VISITORS TO BRING SUPPORT

Home Team in Much Better Condition and Confidently Expects Victory

With the promise of the Wichita Falls players that they will get revenge for their defeat of two weeks ago, and with the equally sincere promise of the Electra squad that there will be no revenge, this afternoon's football game at the city park at three o'clock promises to be one of the hardest fought gridiron contests staged in Northwest Texas in a long time.

The Electra team will come down this morning and will be accompanied by a large following of rooters. In spite of the feeling which was aroused as a result of some incidents of the former game, theer is no reason to believe that anything else than a clean, sportsmanlike contest will be staged.

The locals feel that they have improved sufficiently in the past two weeks to defeat the oil city's eleven and they are in much better shape to put up a winning contest. In the former game, Electra did not show near the superiority that might have been expected from a team with their advantage in weight and this fact has encouraged the Wichitans in the belief that they will be able to obtain revenge today.

The lineup for both teams will be practically the same as that in the former game.

GREATER DOMESTIC CONSUMPTION FACTOR

Cotton Prices Advance On Increased Consumption of Raw Cotton By American Mills.

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, Nov. 13.—Cotton stood at an advance during the greater part of the session today on buying stimulated by the census bureau report on consumption by American mills for October. Bulls considered that the total of 500,635 bales compared with 451,899 a year ago was an important indication of conditions in the mills. The market closed within two or three points of the highest of the day, at a net advance of eleven to thirteen points.

COTTON GINNINGS FAR LESS THAN AT SAME TIME IN 1914

Both Wichita and Archer Counties Show Big Decrease in Government Report

Cotton ginnings in Wichita and Archer counties up to November 1 were far below the figures for the same date in 1914, according to O. P. Maricle, government crop reporter for the two counties, whose November 1 report has just been returned.

Wichita county's ginnings were 1779, as compared with 8288 at the same time in 1914. Archer county's total on November 1 was 1351 against 5209 in 1914. The figures indicate that ginnings in this county increased more rapidly during the last two weeks of October than Archer county's did, as the latter was ahead of Wichita county according to the figures in October 14 report.

GAINESVILLE MAN ROBBED AND BOUND

T. L. McFALL ROBBED OF SUMMER'S SAVINGS BY THREE COMPANIONS HERE

WAS SET UPON FROM BEHIND

Robbed, Gagged and Bound and Left on Creek Bank—Cries Bring Help Hours Later

Beaten into insensibility, robbed, gagged and tied with baling wire and left on the banks of Holliday Creek was the fate that befall T. L. McFall of Gainesville, who reached here several days ago from New Mexico on his way home after several months of toil over the cook stove of a construction camp outfit. McFall arrived here with more than a hundred dollars in cash. He is now penniless and has lost a good deal of his faith in mankind.

Shortly after his arrival here McFall met a young man he had known for several years. His acquaintance was flat broke and McFall generously fed him for several days while the two loitered about the city. Friday while in the flat district they met with two other young men, friends of McFall's friend. Together the four sauntered down the railroad tracks to Holliday Creek. Arriving at the bridge they went down to the creek bank. McFall, according to his story, was sitting on the bank of the creek, satisfied with the savings of his summer's work and carefree. Suddenly an arm was thrust under his chin and he was struck a blow on the head, then he felt his feet seized. Then things turned dark. McFall awoke with his hands tied behind his back and his feeet tied and a gag in his mouth.

Finally he worked the gag loose and after several hours of shouting his cries were heard and help came. When McFall was unfastened he found his pockets empty and his watch gone. This was about five o'clock Friday afternoon. He says it was about ten o'clock Friday morning when he went to the creek bank with his three companions.

He gave a fairly good description of the three men to the officers. Two young men whom McFall identified were taken into custody Saturday. One of them carried a handkerchief which McFall identified as his. The officers are still on the lookout for the third man. McFall says the robbers took about $90, all that remained of his savings.

ROPE, HORSE AND AUTOMOBILE TANGLE UP, INJURIES RESULT

Occupants of Delivery Car Are Hurt in Accident in Floral Heights Saturday

A rope with which a horse was tied to graze at the side of a street in Floral Heights got mixed up with Bond's grocery delivery automobile Saturday afternoon resulting in slight bruises to N. R. Dunnavan and Paul McGrath who were in the automobile. The horse which was staked on one side of the street had gone over to the other side dragging the rope with it and had then gone back to the other side making the rope lie in the form of a loop in the street. When the delivery wagon came along the horse became frightened and ran to the end of its tether and then attempted to pass the machine. The tightened rope struck the radiator cap and one of the lamps knocking them off. The radiator cap struck Mr. Dunnavan on the forehead and the lamp struck the McGrath boy's arm. Neither was badly hurt. Had they been hit with the rope they might have been seriously injured.

SCHOOL TEACHER LOSES SUIT FOR DAMAGES IN CLAY COUNTY

Asked $20,000 When He Was Discharged Because of Notes Written to Pupil

R. A. Logan, former school teacher of the McKee school in Clay county, failed to secure any damages from the trustees of the school in the trial of his suit in the district court at Henrietta last week. Logan was discharged after it was learned that he had written notes to one of the girl pupils of his school. He filed suit against the trustees alleging that their action had damaged his reputation and had made it difficult for him to secure another position. He asked $20,000 damages. The jury after being out only about fifteen minutes returned a verdict for the defendants.

CIGAR EXPLODED; SUES FOR $30,000

HASKELL COUNTY MAN FILES UNIQUE SUIT AGAINST RAILROAD

FACE DAMAGED BY EXPLOSION

Bought Weed From News Butch and It Blew Up—Another $30,000 Suit

Because a cigar which he purchased from a news butch on the Wichita Valley proved to be a trick cigar, exploding in his face and causing injury to his features, Robert Borden, a Haskell county farmer, is suing the Wichita Valley Railway Company for $30,000. The suit was filed in the district court at Haskell last week.

Borden's petition alleges that while he was a passenger on a Valley train, he purchased a cigar from the "butch" and applied a match to same. Shortly afterward, he claims, there was an explosion which injured his eye and did other damage to his face, some of the damage, he alleges, being of a permanent nature.

The suit is considered unique and will be followed with considerable interest. It will involve the question of the railroad company's responsibility for the quality of the cigars handled by news agents, which might seem to be a far reaching question.

Another $30,000 damage suit against the Wichita Valley was filed at Haskell during the week, a man who was injured in an accident at Rule claiming that amount as a result of the loss of his leg.

Another advance of 10 cents in the price of crude oil was recorded yesterday. The price now is 90 cents. A few months ago 45 cents per barrel was being paid. According to the Manufacturers Record, there is soon going to be a famine in gasoline, and if that prediction is true the price of crude oil is not likely to stop at 90 cents per barrel. This last rise in price ought to cause increased activity in the oil fields at Electra, Burkburnett and Petrolia.

Comptroller H. B. Terrell is quoted as having said that if the various heads of departments in the different counties of the State will have their books audited correctly they can save the State at least $50,000 annually on traveling expenses. Are we to understand from this that the State is paying out each year $50,000 as mileage expenses to its officers for mileage that is not traveled? If that is true, then it is time somebody was starting an investigation to discover just who the grafters are, and we know of no person in better position or authority to do this than the comptroller.

It was our honest, candid opinion that Governor Ferguson should have kept out of that Bell county local option election, but he butted in and made himself an issue, and the result indicates that the question of local option and statewide prohibition will be an issue in the next gubernatorial campaign. The people of Texas, regardless of whether their governor votes the wet or the dry ticket, do not think that he should attempt to sway them to his way of thinking on that proposition. At least, that appears to be the way the people of Bell, which is the governor's home county, seem to view such matters.

All the Republicans mentioned so far as candidates, or who are likely to become candidates for the Republican presidential nomination, have served terms in the United States Senate, or are now serving in that capacity. There is Burton of Ohio, Cummins of Iowa, Root of New York, and Borah of Idaho. All are big men, but if there has ever been an ex-senator elected to the presidency we fail to recall who it was. Ex-President Taft is supporting Root for the nomination and ex-President Roosevelt is quoted as having said that Root was his choice. If those two men are agreed, it would seem that Mr. Root's chances for the nomination are better than the other aspirants.

The death at Austin last Friday of Asher G. Smoot, general manager of the Austin American, and for many years editor and general manager of the Austin Statesman, removes from the ranks of Texas newspaperdom one of its most worthy members. Colonel Smoot began newspaper work when only seventeen years old and spent his life in Austin, undergoing all the hardships that in former years were wont to attend newspapers in that city. Under his helpful tutelage many newspapermen served their apprenticeships and quite a few of these graduated from the Austin papers to positions of responsibility and importance elsewhere. His health failed several years ago, but he made the same plucky fight for life that characterized his newspaper experiences, staying at his desk for months when men less Spartan would have surrendered. He was a greater factor in the upbuilding of Austin than he was given credit for, and his passing leaves a gap that will be hard to fill.

The Burkburnett Star is opposing the voting of $225,000 worth of bonds for the building and equipping of a new court house, principally, it seems for the reason that the Star thinks $150,000 would be ample for that purpose. An excerpt from the article appearing in the Star is as follows:

"Last year $50,000 was voted for the city-county hospital. Now they are wanting $225,000 for a court house. What will be sprung next is a matter of conjecture. There will be other bond issues proposed from time to time, consequently it would not seem the part of wisdom to spend $50,000 or $75,000 more than is necessary on a court house."

Now, as a matter of fact, about all the county tax money that is expended in Wichita Falls is for the court house and jail. The rest of it is spent in the county to keep up the roads and bridges. If the Times had the time and space to spare it would publish the amount of county tax money that has been levied and collected on Wichita Falls property annually, for the past twenty or thirty years, and compare it with the amount of county tax money expended within the corporate limits of this city. Such a comparison the Times feels quite sure would show that where one dollar tax money collected as taxes from property located within the corporate limits of this city, ten dollars have been expended on the outside, or in the county outside of Wichita Falls. That all of it has been expended for a good purpose the Times does not doubt, and the taxpayers of Wichita Falls, who pay nearly one-half the taxes of the county are not complaining. The Star should not complain at Wichita Falls. She certainly has done her full share of tax paying, and all she has got to show for it is the present court house, jail, and a joint city and county hospital.

Bell county is to vote on prohibition again very soon. Bell county is the home of Governor Ferguson and the antis have made it appear to him that the election is an effort on the part of the pros to discredit his administration. Just how such a contingency could happen is not very clear at this distance, but the Governor will roll up his sleeves and wade into the campaign personally anyway. The administration has got to be saved, and nothing but a big majority for booze in Bell county will do it. Besides the Governor promised when elected that this prohibition agitation should cease, and he's going to put it down if he has to keep it up.—Chillicothe News.

Well, the election occurred Saturday, and the vote indicates the administration is saved.

GERMAN OFFICERS WATCH LANDING ALLIED TROOPS

By Associated Press.

Rome, Nov. 13.—Four German officers arrived at Saloniki from Sofia on October 25 and spent three days motoring in that district especially in the section where the allied troops were concentrated on October 28, according to a story printed by the Matino, under a Saloniki date. They are said to have been taken to Piraeus on a Greek torpedo boat.

The Matin's correspondent asserts he has been assured the Germans constructed a special mission whose object was to establish relations between the governments at Athens, Constantinople, Bucharest and Sofia. King Constantine was assured by the Germans, the Matin's correspondent reports, that Roumania would remain neutral and that Bulgaria's pledge to Greece will be guarded by Germany.

WHEN ALLIES TOOK GERMAN TRENCHES

CORRESPONDENT VISITS SCENE OF RECENT OFFENSIVE ON WEST FRONT

SHELL, BAYONET AND DAGGER

Sanguinary Hand to Hand Fighting in Secondary Positions Gives Attackers Victory

By Associated Press.

Chalons, France, Nov. —"When we have taken you out before, we have shown you trenches," said a French officer. "This time we are going to show you a field of victory—lines of trenches which we took from the Germans."

Not all the spoil had yet been removed from that section fifteen miles long and from one to five in breadth where, on September 25 and 26 the French had broken back the siege line of the Germans with the concentration of infantry and the expenditure of a million shells.

What looked like a man of war turret on wheels was being drawn along the road. This cupola of riveted armor was dented by shell fragments. It had an opening for the swing of a small gun and a door for the exit and entrance of the crew, which could be fastened by a bolt and a heavy chain.

"Three men were found inside—locked in," said an officer. "The turret was set in the parapet of a trenche at an important point of the line. All the German soldiers in the neighborhood had either been killed or buried alive. We had to break the lock to take the crew out. All three were alive but stunned. They had gone on firing their guns as long as they could."

Wire Entanglements Cut.

Freely the correspondent moved between the old first line French and German trenches, which, for many months, had been a zone of death for whoever showed himself. In front of the first line trench the Germans had barbed wire entanglements five or six feet broad. A rabbit could not have gone through without being caught. In places now one had to search to find any wire. It had been chopped into bits by the burst of shrapnel bullets from the soixante quinze guns and then kneaded into the earth by high explosive shells. Those guns had been firing from a range of anywhere from two thousand to five thousand yards, yet with such accuracy that they could hit this ribbon of wire six feet broad. On such accuracy depended the success of the infantry in reaching the German trenches. There must be guns and shells enough to destroy wire over a front of fifteen miles. If the Germans in the trench with their rifles and machine guns and hand grenades could go on firing it meant murder for the Frenchmen exposed in the open as they charged.

So fifteen or twenty yards beyond where the wire was being cut more shell fire had to kill the fire from the German trenches. Some blasts of shrapnel bullets here, too enough to make any man in the German trenches want to keep his head down if he was not buried or eviscerated by high explosive shells. For hundreds of yards in some places there was scarcely any semblance of trenches after the French guns had prepared the way for the French infantry. It was as if the trenches had been dynamited systematically with charges plotted out checker board fashion.

At other places where the destruction had not been so complete it was possible to see what the German trenches were like and with what amazing thoroughness and care they had been built.

To a layman they seemed impregnable. Down these slanting shafts under the parapets were caves twenty and thirty feet deep for refuge in a bombardment. In many cases the openings had been closed by the descent of a ton or more of earth from the concussion of a large calibre howitzer shell, and all the men within were buried alive.

The fate of those who were in the trench itself was often to be buried in fragments of flesh and bone, blown into the soil by the explosion. The German guns could not fire on the French infantry as they reached the barbed wire for fear of hitting the Germans in the trenches and the French fire stopped for fear of hitting the French. Where an inferno of explosions had raged peace reigned over the wreckage wrought by French gunnery, as the French soldiers sprang over the remnants of parapets to face with bayonet and dagger any German that had survived and was in possession of his senses.

"Even those who were often yielded. What would you? We swarmed around them. We summoned those alive out of their dugouts. Thus we took our prisoners. That is, we took those who were alive. The dead and the wounded, they were more numerous than the prisoners. It was terrible, Monsieur, and it all happened very fast, Monsieur. The blood was hot. We had waited many months. It was victory. How good the hough hough of the soixante quinze sounded behind us! How good the scream of our big shells! Then there were the mines we exploded. Have you seen the craters? So big you could almost put the Arc de Triomphe into one of them. We charged into a wall of smoke and dusts from the shells and the smoke and dust were still thick when we reached the German trenches."

EXTENSION OF QUANAH ROAD WESTWARD RUMORED

(Quanah Observer)

It is understood that the extension of the Q. A. & P. railroad to a connection with the Santa Fe will be undertaken as soon as there is a probability of getting sufficient rails. At this time there is more money in turning steel into shrapnel shells and few roads can get rails in any amount, no matter what the price is they offer. Orders are taken to be filed at some future date, the exact time being shrouded in mystery. So there would be no good business in throwing up the grade when the rails cannot be had for ironing it. It is whispered that the O. A. & P. management has placed the bonds for the proposed extension, in spite of efforts of the great trunk lines to close the doors of the money market against the proposition. However, should there be a settlement of the war between the several European nations there is little doubt but that the Q. A. & P. will be promptly extended to the connection with the Santa Fe when all West Texas south of Amarillo and north of the Texas & Pacific will be more or less tributary to Quanah and Quanah wholesale houses.

GANG OPIUM SMUGGLERS OPERATING IN TEXAS

Is Arrest at San Antonio Revenue Officers Believe They Have Unearthed Gang.

By Associated Press

San Antonio, Texas, November 13—With the arrest of a man charged with having opium in his possession the United Sattes revenue officers believed they have unearthed an organized gang of opium smugglers and traders At least 100 cans of opium valued at $120 a can have been traced from the Mexican border through a channel leading from the smugglers to drug stores where it is secretly dispensed. Headquarters for the organization, according to the information in possession of the officers, is in Texas and five men figure as the leaders in the enterprise

FRANCE EXPECTS TO GIVE MUCH BUSINESS TO AMERICA

Commissioners Say Trade Which Formerly Went to Germany Will Come Here

New York, Nov 11—'New York is certain to supplant London as the financial center of the world—if not immediately after the war, at least in the near future"

Members of the French Trade Commission, which arrived here yesterday, so expressed themselves before leaving for Washington to meet Ambassador Jusserand and Administration officials

"We should not like to have our friends in London hear us say it, perhaps," said M Chouffour, Paris banker vigorously polishing his monocle 'But, nevertheless, it is a fact Civilization and also finance moves westward London may not like it, but it is inevitable"

Maurice Damour, chairman, of the commission, explained that the visit is being made to America not for the purpose of entering into contracts, but to look over machinery factories with a view to future purchases If the results of the two or three months' tour of American industrial plants prove satisfactory, he said, he saw no reason why the $160,000 000 that France annually spends in Germany for machinery should not be spent in the United States, provided that America reciprocates by making such purchases as she can from France

"We didn't come here to buy," said Damour who is secretary of the Appropriations committee of the French Chamber of Deputies 'It is impossible to know exactly what we need, because the Germans hold much of our territory in Northern France But when we throw the Germans out"—and Damour made violent gestures with both hands as if he were engaged in that operation—"well, the fat man over there (pointing to the exceedingly slender E de la Salle Thiriez, an expert on spinning machinery) will tell the government just what we need

"We might buy from England after the war, but England's prices are too dear and England will need what she can produce

"We can not buy from Germany after the war, not for years—it is impossible—well, perhaps—(and Damour's eyes twinkled)—perhaps after fifty years we shall forget—we shall see

"But if we find things satisfactory here, then the war will see a grand restoration of trade between France and the United Statees on a permanent basis"

Three of the five members of the commission have seen service at the French front. All repudiated indignantly the thought that France will consider peace at this time

"Foolish! Foolish!" exclaimed Damour, bringing both hands down upon the table with a vigorous smash. 'Oh, Monsieur, that is impossible. We must go on to the end. Peace talk is only German talk. There is no feeling like tha tin France."

"ROLLERS" AT WORK TWO ARE SLUGGED

MAN IN CHARGE OF IMMIGRANT CAR AND COMPANION KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS.

ROBBERY NEAR EAST LAKE

Chance Acquaintances Show Strangers Sights, Lead Them to Secluded Spot And Slug Them.

A man named Ingram in charge of an immigrant car moving from East Texas to Memphis, Texas and a companion from Ballinger, Texas whose name could not be learned were slugged and robbed Friday night on a road crossing East Lake not far from the flat district. Both men were knocked unconscious and all their money taken from them. One lost about $28 and the other about $35

Ingram's car was laid out in the yards here Friday Ingram on getting out met the Ballinger man whom he had known before They started to take in the sights of the town and both became intoxicated They met two other men who showed them around Pretending to take them to new sights, the two led the East Texas man and his Ballinger companion to the East Lake district, where in the darkness they suddenly slugged them, presumably with sling shot, robbed them and left them lying unconscious on the ground One of them recovered consciousness before the other and worked with his companion until he restored him to consciousness also The two men then staggered across the lake bed to the flat district where they found their way into one of the houses The police were notified The two men went with the police to the scene of the robbery where the officers found pools of blood

The men were unable to give an accurate description of the two men who robbed them, but others had seen the two with them and the officers think they know who the robbers are

CORSET FITTINGS IN MOTION PICTURES FRIDAY

The old saying that there is nothing new under the sun, will receive a decisive negative in Wichita Falls Friday afternoon The Kahn's Company have engaged the Majestic Theatre for a special matinee which will be limited to women only This will be a great disappointment to their male patrons, but as the seating capacity will be taxed, and as the film is of direct interest to women only, men will have to forego this matinee

This film shows the actual fitting of Gossard Corsets and woven around the fittings is a beautiful story entitled "How Marjorie Won a Career" It required almost three months to complete this film and the Kahn's Company store is to be congratulated on being able to get an early run on the film

Complimentary passes are being issued to the ladies of Wichita Falls in the corset department of Kahn's Company, second floor. You can get as many as you like for yourself and friends

Moving pictures are certainly covering a wide range of activities and there is no telling what one will see next at the movies That they are exercising a wonderful education of influence no one can deny and we have no doubt that the Kahn's Company store will find themselves besieged for requests to this matinee for women only

The above will be shown in addition to the regular program

OIL PRICE REACHES NINETY CENT MARK

DIME ADVANCE IS ANNOUNCED BY TEXAS COMPANY SATURDAY

100 PER CENT GAIN RECORDED

Price Now Double That of Last July —Has Caused Big Increase in Work

An advance of ten cents per barrel in the price of oil in the Northwest Texas field was announced Saturday afternoon by the Texas Company, following similar advances in the Mid-Continent field earlier in the day. Ninety cents is now the ruling quotation for oil in Kansas, Oklahoma and Northwest Texas.

The new price gives a 100 per cent advance over that of three and a half months ago, when 45 cents was paid in this field. On August 3 an advance was announced, and this has been followed by others of five and ten cents, bringing the price to eighty cents on September 16. Saturday's boost is the first in nearly two months, the price remaining stationary for some time on account of the big increase in production at Cushing, Oklahoma, which practically dominates the Mid-Continent situation. Lately, however, the demand has been such that even the increased supply was in danger of depletion, and another advance resulted.

The present price is within fifteen cents of the high mark for this field, $1.05, and local oil men are predicting that this figure will be reached before the end of this year.

During the three and a half months since the price began its upward climb, there has been a marked revival of drilling in this section, and it is likely that 70 or more rigs have been started. The increase in work has resulted in the return of many drillers and workers and in a general improvement in conditions, particularly in Electra, Burkburnett, Iowa Park and the communities close to the scene of drilling operations.

CLEARS $20 PER ACRE ON CROP OF JOHNSON GRASS.

(Archer News.)

Z. T. Burkett, efficient manager of the Wilson ranches, informed us one day this week that they had put up 18,000 bales of Johnson grass off 200 acres of their farm four miles north of Archer City. A considerable number of bales have been sold here at 25 cents each, and would easily bring that amount in car lots. This would make the entire crop worth $4,750 or $23.75 per acre. After deducting all expenses incurred in the cutting, baling and hauling the net profit exceeds $20 per acre. The meadow is now green and pretty, and is furnishing fine grazing for their hogs and yearlings.

ANTI-CAPITAL PUNISHMENT MOVEMENT CONTEMPLATED

(Dallas Journal)

Dallas it is expected, will be the first city in the State to voice its disapproval of capital punishment, following the hanging of C A Myers in Fort Worth yesterday The report of his decapitation caused much comment here, and after its publication Miss Elizabeth Baker, secretary of the Humane Society declared that the society would take up at once the matter of trying to get the next legislature to pass a law forbidding capital punishment

There are twenty-one societies in Texas Miss Baker said she will prepare letters to the heads of each society and also to the directors of the State society urging immediate action so that there will be no delay in presenting a bill to this effect before the legislature which meets early next year

"Every humane society in the world objects to capital punishment," said Miss Baker 'and the hanging in Fort Worth yesterday demonstrated the brutality of the human race Why we don't believe in killing dogs that way, much less a human being Anything is better than hanging even electrocution but we do not believe in taking life even with an electric chair It a man commits murder and is hanged the State of Texas is equally as guilty of murder as the man who was hanged We have twenty one societies in Texas, and after consulting with all of our members here I am going to take the matter up with the societies over the State and everything possible will be done to have a law passed abolishing capital punishment'

A resolution calling for the submission of a constitutional amendment to do away with capital punishment in Texas probably will be one of the issues for consideration at the next session of the State legislature

GERMANS GETTING RID OF FRENCH WORDS IN LANGUAGE

Terms of Foreign Origin or Form Are Being Eliminated—Some of the Changes Are Ludicrous

By Associated Press

Berlin Nov 9—Hotel will become Gresshof to distinguish it from Gasthof if the Berlin police president has his way This is one of the Germanizations of foreign words decided on at a meeting of representatives of various business interests held recently Parfumerie is to be replaced by Riechstoffhandlung, literally smell stuff store Abendrock (evening coat) is to take the place of smoking (pronounced schmockink) as the name of the Tuxedo or dinner coat and the Friseur or barber a word which, although not French has given offense on account of its French form, is to be replaced by Haarkuenstler The work of replacing foreign elements in the language is to go on

The International Association of Hotel Owners has already protested to the minister of the interior against an order of the military commander of the eleventh army corps district, which banned the word hotel and threatened in case the order was not obeyed to forbid members of the army from visiting places retaining the old name The hotel owners protest that the proposed substitutes Gasthof or Gasthaus convey the meaning of a simple lodging house of the poorer and cheaper class whereas the hotel is used and has a defi[illegible] ning in all lands

GERMAN STRATEGY IN BALKAN FIGHTING

INVASION FOLLOWS LINE OF BELGRADE-CONSTANTINOPLE RAILWAY

STUBBORN DEFENSE POSSIBLE

Hills and Heights Make Rapid Advance Difficulty—Theatre's Geography Described

Washington Nov 11— Most important of the ways along which invasion is now being pushed, is that followed by the Oriental Railway connecting Belgrade with Constantinople the famous Balkan route which the central powers are endeavoring to seize and maintain ' begine a primer on war geography issued today by the National Geographic Society This way follows the Morava Valley to Nish where it branches through an irregular low land through the hills to Sofia the Bulgarian capital and thence takes its course along the valley of the Maritza through central Bulgaria to Mustafa Pasa and Adrianople whence running south and east it crosses the Maritza and follows a well protecteed course through the center of European Turkey to Constantinople.

The only link in this famous overland route of Europe's to the Orient, which is not under the control of the Allies of the central powers is that within Servia This link represents a stretch of about 17 miles being about 125 miles from Belgrade to Nish and about 40 miles from Nish to the Bulgarian frontier Nearly the whole course of the Bulgaria Constantinople route is paralleled by chains of hills and mountains capable of most stubborn defense and for the most part the exposed Hinterland to the west and south forms a rugged difficult region of complex mountain pattern

The way of this route of so great recent importance in the war is difficult of attack from its entrance into Bulgaria until at that part of its course where it crosses the Maritza The Rhodope mountains which form the Bulgarian boundary toward Greece above Salonika are outposts between 50 and 70 miles to the south of the way through Maritza These mountains, also, but little back from the Bulgarian Aegean seacoast guard this part of the exposed frontier From Aenos where the allies have a military base to the Orient line at Demotika Turkey in Europe is about 50 miles The land in between however is marshy with nothing of the dignity of a road puts the little Turkish port city from the interior Nevertheless this forms probably the most vulnerable section of the way Elsewhere in Servia in Bulgaria, and throughout its lower course in Turkey the important pathway of the Orient Railroad is sheltered by formidable natural defenses.'

The Morava Valley

The Morava valley along which the allied German and Austro Hungarian troops are pushing forward to a junction with the Bulgarians forms the core of old Servia The greatest part of Servia's trade flows through this valley, and here also, is much of the small kingdom's richest agricultural and Moreover it is through this narrow strip of lowland that the mountainous Balkan country has maintained its contact with the West, a contact always advantageous

The Morava Valley forms one of those famed troughs across European uplands along which armies have cured throughout all history and any a powerful host has passed over the course that the Teutonic soldiers are taking today When Constantinople the golden capital of the Empire of the East was in the zenith of its glory, its generals held back Slav incursions in battles fought beside the Morava River Some of the crusaders marched this way crossing into Asia Minor at Byzantium and while on their way through territories of Eastern Orthodox Christians these exuberant Franks and Teutons often kept the people guessing as to whether the crusade was planned against the Eastern Church or against Mohammedans The conquering Turks received the lines of march and swarmed down the valley to the gates of Vienna itself and since the breaking of the Ottoman power the German people have been looking up the valley to commercial expansion beyond in the rich though stagnant areas of Asia Minor and Mesopotamia

The Morava River is not only Servia's largest river it is one of the most important in the Balkans The line of the Orient Express coming Paris from Munich and from Vienna, parallels the river, and stops long enough in Belgrade and Nish for one to wonder about the towns beyond A large part of the export from Germany and Austria Hungary to the Balkans and to Turkey passes this way in normal times and the raw material of Servia find their way down the river to the factories in the north

The Morava river is formed by the union of the Servian Staiva and of the southern and western Morava It is about 240 miles long and is navigable for more than 50 miles from its mouth Rafts flat bottomed boats and small low draught steamers are operated over this course An eastern branch of the stream rises close to the Bulgarian boundary while the southern Morava rises near Uskup It empties into the Danube 30 miles east of Belgrade at Semendria Among the more important towns along its course are Tagodina Chuprija Paracin, Kragujevatz Kruchevatz Gorgusatz, Levatz and Nish

Have your tires been 99% satisfactory during the past two years?

If in 1914 and 1915 you have used ten tires and one has "gone bad," you have only been 90% satisfied. If two have "gone bad," your score is reduced to 80%.

In 1914 and 1915, out of every million Diamond Squeegee Tread Tires, 990,000, or 99% have made good

Was your percentage that high?

If nine friends and yourself had between you, in 1914 and 1915, bought 100 Diamond Squeegees for your cars but one tire out of the whole lot would have required adjusting.

If it takes you 15 years to use up 100 tires yourself, in all those years only one Diamond Squeegee will cause you any trouble.

Anderson, Mesdames Anderson Sr., Morris an Dilliard being hostesses. An original poem was read by Mrs. A. S. Moore and the class chronicles were read by Mrs. J. J. Lory. These chronicles were exceedingly clever, being written by Mrs. Lorry in Biblical style. A contest prepared by Mrs. Morris provided additional amusement and the class song was sung. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to 38 members and two visitors. A pretty sentiment was observed in the entertainment, the day being the wedding anniversary of Mrs. Anderson Sr., and also her first time from the sick room where she has been confined for some time. Each guest had brought chrysanthemums and literally showered Mrs. Anderson with a wealth of bloom.

Vitagraph s intense railroad drama From beginning to end the two stars hold their audience spellbound with their acting The story is full of interest also

The central figure is Philip Hardin the dissipated son of an old railroad magnate The latter's death brings some of life s sweetest rewards to Philip, including wealth and a beautiful wife She dies and leaves him a daughter who becomes a maternal replica some twenty years later At a time when Philip has accepted a railroad presidency as the tool of a stock manipulating syndicate Meanwhile, growing in the legal profession to become district attorney is John Ballard The lives of these two men are strangely interwoven at the beginning of their active careers when they were classmates at college, Ballard assisting Philip to pass his examinations and extricating him from a manhandling experience in a gambling joint Though the rescue was made at the peril of Ballard s own life, the death of one of the gamblers supposedly at his hands put a weapon in the hands of Philip in case he clashes with his friend

There is nothing heroic about Philip, he is very human, he accepts the wealth his father earned and the lovely girl his friend gave up as two of the prime essentials of happiness on earth He loves his wife while she lives, and loves his daughter after the mother s death He would even be scrupulous in business in response to District Attorney Ballard s personal pleading, but he is dominated by the Wall street clique and he reneges in favor of the clique at a time when public opinion runs high against the deadly economy of his road He menaces the attorney with exposure of his supposed crime only to have his daughter reveal to Ballard that no such crime was committed

"The WONDERFUL ADVENTURE"

By CAPTAIN WILLIAM LAWTON

The Star Supreme—A Play Superb!

A photo play of modern life and dual personalties.

Mr. Farnum was never seen to better advantage than in "The Wonderful Adventure." One can readily see why he is the highest salaried man in motion pictures. So compelling is his wonderful interpretations that there is never a realaxation of interest during the entire five-reels, and it is made by the greatest producer of features in the world—William Fox—the name stands for quality. Fox features are always good. 10c and 15c.

WILLIAM FARNUM AT THE MAJESTIC TUESDAY

The Wonderful Adventure' by Captain Wilbur Lawton the most recent William Fox release starring William Farnum, known to fame as the $100 000 darmatic artist, is a story of unusual power and deep human interest As penned by Captain Lawton The Wonderful Adventure provides a magnificent photodrama for the great genius of Mr Farnum for whom in fact the work was especially written and devised

'The Wonderful Adventure is in part biographical said Captain Lawton, recently while discussing his latest work, at his summer residence at Beechhurst, L I 'Some of the events embodied in it actually occurred to a man who is still living and whose name is honored as one of the most famous of modern novelists The idea that some of the more striking events of his life would make an impressive photoplay if transposed from my play at occurred to me while I was cruising on my yacht Omoo in the West Indies I at once wrote the scenario on board and put back for New York where Mr Fox became interested in my work and accepted it for the use of Mr Farnum

THE LYDIA MARGARET FEATURES HOBART BOSWORTH

The Monday program is made up of "Fatherhood the latest of the Broadway Universal Features

"Fatherhood' featuring Hobart Bosworth with Helen Wolcott and written and produced by Mr Bosworth, is a four reel psychological study of a woman whose natural affections and longings are suppressed by her unemotional husband It was staged by Mr Bosworth in settings of wonderful beauty, with backgrounds which rival in splendor the golden sunsets of the Sierra Nevada mountains, where the play was filmed

'Fatherhood" is a virile, red blooded western drama with a domestic appeal which elevates it out of the class of the merely thrilling and makes it a problem play with applications which every woman will understand The climax comes when a young wife becomes nervous and loses her normal health and buoyancy Denied her husband s love the young wife is thrown into the company of a handsome young cowboy of about her own age Her husband, a man in middle life, is hardened with the cares of a big ranch, and does not believe in demonstsrating his affection deep though it is either in public or private The developments which arise out of this relation between husband and wife are presented in a form which should not give offense to even the most prudish

The Mother Tongue of All

"Pensez a moi," pleads the Frenchman. He could not express his feelings by saying "Think of me."

"Auf wiedersehen," says the German. He would find it impossible to put his heart into "Goodbye until we meet again."

"The same to you," replies the American to the good wishes of his friends. No foreign language can supply its equivalent.

FEELING is best expressed in the mother tongue because then it is expressed instinctively. Otherwise, it is the head—not the heart—that speaks. To give the same feeling complete expression in music, the instrument must be as much a part of the individual as his native language. The

Baldwin Manualo

The • Player-Piano • that • is • all • but • human is the mother tongue of whoever plays it. Its music is the embodiment of the hope, fear, love, hate, pride, humility, tenderness, strength that course through the veins of the individual as he plays. It would express your musical feelings undiluted, unchanged. The reason, in brief, is this:

When you play the Manualo, the dictates of your heart do not have to be first translated by your head into the manipulation of a complicated mechanism. The Manualo is controlled directly from one point where all your feeling is continually and instinctively expressed in all its primal strength—the pedals. Every accent, every variation in force, every change of style that the feeling dictates finds instantaneous musical realization. The Manualo, from the moment you begin to play, is your natural means of musical expression as English is your natral means of word expression.

So responsive is the Manualo to every degree of feeling and every racial mood that it is in demand by the widely different people of fifteen different countries throughout the world.

"The A B C of the Manualo" explains and illustrates in detail why the Manualo is the mother tongue of all. Send for a copy today.

SHARP, STABBING PAINS

Often Tell of Weak Kidneys. A Wichita Falls Resident Shows You What to Do.

The sharp twinge of pain in the small of the back that strikes you after any sudden twist or awkward motion, may tell of weak kidneys. And there are often disturbances of the urine—too frequent urination, scalding or burning pain during passage, discolored urine and sediment.

Doan's Kidney Pills are prepared especially for weakened kidneys, kidney backache and urinary disorders—have proven their merit in thousands of cases. Doan's are endorsed throughout the civilized world—are recommended by Wichita Falls residents.

Mrs. G. W. Pendell, 508 Austin St., Wichita Falls, says: "I suffered greatly from pains in my back, hips and shoulders. Part of the time, it was a dull, heavy ache and then sharp, shooting pains went all through me. My feet and ankles became swollen and my sight was terribly blurred by little specks floating before my eyes. I knew these troubles were caused by my kidneys and I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Mack Taylor's Drug Store. Three boxes cured me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Pendell had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

The front axle of R. H. Hollinger's roadster broke as he was turning from Eighth street into Scott avenue Friday afternoon and the four occupants of the machine were given a severe jolt but were not badly hurt.

Jerry L. Hickson of Gainesville, was elected republican chairman of the thirteenth congressional district Saturday at a meeting of republican county chairmen of the district in this city. The meeting was attended by H. F. Macgregor of Houston, national committeeman from this State.

Beyond a general discussion of political matters in general, little else was done at the meeting, which was held at the St. James hotel. The new chairman was instructed to proceed with the organization of the district in compliance with the provisions of the state election laws. Lewis Johnson of Jacksboro was elected district secretary.

A prediction of republican victory next year was made by Mr. Macgregor, in an interview.

"We have every reason to believe that a republican will be elected president next year," he said, "the sentiment of the country is more and more for protection and the republicans will win on that issue."

Most of the state delegations will be sent to the republican convention uninstructed, Mr. Macgregor believes, except in cases where "favorites sons will be given special support." Mr. Macgregor has recently returned from a trip east, and finds the belief prevailing in republican circles there that no candidate will come to the convention with any decided number of instructed delegates and that the real choice will be made by the convention after it has gone over the situation.

As to the nominee, Mr. Macgregor said that Borah, Fairbanks and Weeks all had numerous supporters but that none of these seemed to occupy any commanding position. He believes that Texas will send an uninstructed delegation.

Mr. Macgregor said he believed the sentiment among Texas republicans was that national prohibition should not be made a partisan issue next year, as it was not really a party question.

Those attending the meeting here were: W. C. Kenyon of Amarillo; J. L. Hickson of Gainesville; J. E. Breech of Jacksboro; Frank Exum of Shamrock; Mac D. Bybee of Childress; E. E. Diggs of Quanah; C. L. McCullough of Iowa Park and H. F. Macgregor of Houston.

At The Theaters

strument to circumvent a will that is bothering one of his clients—that prevents an Englishman from marrying a girl of the stage. On the suggestion of the lawyer the Englishman marries Kitty and departs for a stay of six months, in order to lay grounds for a charge of desertion, thereby enabling him to marry the player.

The comedian amuses as the freak young woman which she makes of herself in order to gain the acquiescence of the fiancee to the transaction. It must be admitted that the girl from a small community displays a command of the art of make up, but we laugh just the same. She charms as the duly installed Lady Belsize, and she must needs be charming to win the impressionable lord from the clever Helen De Semland of the Gayety theatre.

Cleo Ridgeley has the part of Helen, and she brings to the interpretation the art of the screen player as well as a most interesting personality. Jack Dean scores as the Englishman, Lord Reginald Belsize; his conception of Belsize makes him a very swagger young man, but there is no trace of the burlesque.

"DAN McGREW" AT THE LYDIA MARGARET FRIDAY

Some years ago a poem went the rounds of popularity and was then numbered among the classics, a poem in the class of the Jack London stories and some of the verse that Kipling has written about men that kill as easily as they draw their breath. This poem was "The Shooting of Dangerous Dan McGrew" and now the poem has been put into pictures with Edmund Breese in the same part and it is this picture that will be shown next Friday night at the Lydia Margaret. The story is set in the "Malamute Saloon, the kid that handles the music box was hitting a jag time tune." There are shown Dangerous Dan McGrew and "his light o' love, the lady that's known as Lou." The picture tells the story of a man who wanders in from out the night and it's a gripping story of the great world of the snows.

The tool house at the cemetery was broken into again Friday night and about a half a case of dynamite stolen. The lock was pried off the door. The house has been broken into a number of times and several times before dynamite has been taken. It is believed by some that this dynamite is used by yeggmen in blowing safes in this part of the country.

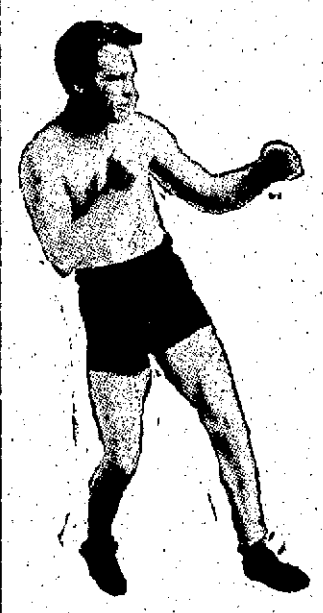
HENDERSON WILL MEET DAVIS FRIDAY

LIGHTWEIGHTS WILL STAGE FIRST BOUT AT CLUBS NEW HEADQUARTERS

WOMEN'S GYMNASIUM CLASSES

Arrangements Made For Permitting Them to Use Club Rooms During Morning Hours



The first boxing match to be held in the new quarters of the Business Men's Athletic club will take place next Friday night when "Sailor" Davis and "Red" Henderson will meet. The match will be held in the club rooms in the building on Ohio Avenue formerly occupied by the Moose lodge.

The club quarters are being fast equipped, and while all apparatus will not have been installed by next Friday, everything will be in readiness for that bout. A platform will be raised in the center of the main hall, with seats all round, furnishing more satisfactory arrangements than at the opera house.

It was announced yesterday that women who wish to join athletic classes may use the club equipment and quarters during the morning hours, and they will be in exclusive charge during the forenoon every day. Miss Sessions, a physical instructress of note, will be in charge of the women's classes; she is already here and has started organizing her classes. These classes will be held in such a manner as not to conflict with any of the men's activities, and Miss Sessions hopes to organize basketball teams and stimulate athletic activities along other lines.

Next Friday's match promises to be an interesting one. Both the contestants are fast boxers, using much the same style of ring tactics, and both being quick and active. Davis is expected to return shortly from Cleburne where he has been visiting relatives, and Henderson will return today from Dallas. It is promised that there will be ample room for all who wish to attend, as an arrangement of seats is permitted that will give all spectators a good view of the ring.

There will be another bout here on Thanksgiving day, but the details have not been completed. It is probable that Bobby Burns will be brought here for the occasion, but this is not assured.

DEDICATE PIPE ORGAN AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH TODAY

The pipe organ which was recently installed at the Church of the Good Shepherd will be dedicated at this morning's services at that church and a special program has been arranged. At tonight's services there will be a choir recital the program for which appears in the church announcement column.

On Thursday morning the convention proper will begin and will continue until Monday of next week.

Piano "Special Sales"

Every month of the year at some point in Texas (and other parts of the country) the "biggest," "grandest," "most startling," "sensational" and "thrilling" sale of pianos "of the century" is being pulled off, each of the several merchants claiming that their sale presents "the only opportunity of a lifetime," etc.

We have been in business half a century and have never held a "special sale." Yet—

We have sold more pianos and player-pianos than any concern doing business in the state.

Because we have shown the wise buyers that our prices on new and used pianos and players are lowest all the time.
